

A&M Ireland Political Communication Summer Faculty-led 2025

Deadline to Apply is December 1st, 2024

OVERVIEW

This 4-week program, located in Galway and Dublin, Ireland, is designed to provide students with insight into Irish history, culture, religion, and politics through communication, paying close attention to the formation of Irish identity as a unique blend of the ancient and modern. Within thousands of years of Irish history, this program focuses on how national identity is a product of multiple strands of communication influenced by technological innovation and a vibrant cultural inheritance. Students will split their time living and studying in Galway and Dublin.

PROGRAM LEADER

Dr. Nathan Crick has extensive expertise running programs not only to Ireland, but Italy as well. Email: crick@tamu.edu
