- Attach to this application your proposal, which you have designed with your Faculty Director.

  The proposal should include:
  - o a description of your internship, including duties you will perform
  - a syllabus including assignments, papers, projects, or other things you will turn in for your grade
  - o your thoughts on how this internship will contribute to your life

Mid-term and Final Reporting and Evaluation

- The Internship Supervisor will send a mid-term report by week 6 of the semester and a final report by the last class day of the semester to the Faculty Director. The reports should address: Reliability/Punctuality, Steadiness of Work, Quality of Work and Student's Attitude and Contributions overall, and a grade recommendation (pass/fail).
  - The Religious Studies Program sincerely appreciates the participation of the supervisor.
- ➤ You, the Intern, will send a self-assessment to your Faculty Director by week 6 of the semester (2-5 pages), and by the last day of classes. At minimum, your self-assessment should reflect on how you are meeting your goals for the internship, and successes and challenges you have experienced.
- You, the Intern, will schedule an appointment with your Faculty Director by week 7 of the semester to assess your progress. Course credit will be based on the Director's evaluation of the two reflection papers and on the Director's assessment of the two supervisor reports.
  - The Faculty Director may add additional papers, reports, documentation, a syllabus, readings, meetings or other requirements as the basis for evaluation. You, the Intern, and your Faculty Director should be absolutely clear about what is expected. Additional expectations must be attached to this form and available to the Supervisor and RELS Coordinator prior to their signatures.
